

Key Stages 1 & 2: Food Chains – What's eating you?

Blue Reef Aquarium supports a variety of vertebrates and invertebrates with a range of different feeding strategies. On this tour the children will learn about the different food chains supporting the marine life and gain a deeper understanding of each animals importance. We will highlight who are the predators, prey and what is the producer in the food chains.

Rock pools